

COUNTRY QUIZ

You may use the notes you took from observing other students' presentations.

On a separate piece of paper, choose two countries that were presented and write down as many similarities and differences that you can. Afterward, write a paragraph about how life in Africa is different than life in America. Include any observations that you learned from your research and observations of others.