

Unit 3 Review Sheet

1. How do you list 3 or more items when signing? _____
2. You should always sign the above on your _____ hand.
3. When indexing 3 or 5 items, the first/oldest is shown on your _____
4. When indexing 4 items, the first/oldest is shown on your _____
5. When indexing 3 items, the last/youngest is shown on your _____
6. When indexing 5 items, the last/youngest is shown on your _____
7. When indexing 4 items, the last/youngest is shown on your _____
8. How do you index above 5 items? _____
9. How do you sign 10th?

-
10. In ASL, which is normally signed first, the NOUN or ADJECTIVE? (circle one)
 11. How do you write fingerspelling in ASL? _____
 12. If someone is signing/showing a shape of an object and both hands are moving at the same time, what can you assume about that item/shape?

 13. How do you show a shape that is asymmetrical (not the same on both sides)?

 14. You must write “#” before writing any fingerspelled word
TRUE FALSE
 15. How is acting/mime shown in written ASL form? _____
 16. Write the handshapes for the vocabulary listed.

Unit 3

VOCABULARY

Measure	Mayonnaise	Until
Cup	Mustard	Toward
Tablespoon	Popcorn	On/above
Teaspoon	Full/fill	Below
Various fractions ($\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{3}{4}$, etc.)	Enough	Together
Bake/oven	Overflow	High
Boil	Cut	Between
Cook/fry	Fold	Disappear
Hot	Tear	Magic
Warm	Circle	Corner
Cool	Square	Break
Temperature	Explain	Use
Sugar	Before	Careful
Salt	After	Choose
Pepper	Get	Line-up
Slice	Take	Share
Chop	Any	Matching
Nuts	Still	Sharp
Berries	Compare	Separate
Strawberries	Connect/join	Remove/subtract
Melon	Disconnect	Empty
Fruit	Relationship	Weigh
Vanilla	Build	Increase
Butter	Group	Decrease
Oil	Set-up	Percent
Melt	Collapse	Limit
Jam	Light	Above-the-limit
	Dark	Below-the-limit
		Below-the-limit
		Equal